

Global Property
SOLUTIONS

Global Property

S O L U T I O N S

GPS

Welcomes You

The developers have released this statement re the Due Diligence,

Once a client pays the reservation fee and begins the stage payments, we immediately take them to the land registry office to sign the purchased plot into their name. This secures the building and land from the very start.

All monies are put into an escrow account through our lawyer, and paperwork is signed on both sides stating that all monies will be returned if anything should happen to the development.